

Student Camp Leadership Academy 2007

Location: Timber Pointe Center, Bloomington, Illinois

Date: November 2-4, 2007

Cost: $130

Vision Statement

The Student Camp Leadership Academy (SCLA) will be the premier educational event for college juniors, seniors and graduate students in the United States to be equipped for careers in youth development within the camping industry.

Purpose

The SCLA will bring together students, camp professionals, national ACA staff and leadership to explore, learn, and understand what the camp professional of the future must be and the leadership opportunities within the ACA structure at the Section and National levels to impact the development of youth and others.

The Academy's goals are:

1. To motivate current students about a career in the camping industry.
2. To interpret leadership needs and opportunities within the ACA.
3. To educate about the professional skills and knowledge needed.
4. To provide a forum for peer networking with other student professionals.
5. To assist in the mentoring of students with practicing professionals.

Other Key Points:

- Students must be ACA members and should apply directly to their Section.
- ACA Sections will assist with students' travel to the Academy.
- Each Section will send up to three students.
- If space permits, an individual camp can send support and additional students.
